

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Commander-in-Chief.

brother or sister, and the person so nominated when he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years shall become eligible to membership for life in the Second Class. Any nomination for membership in any class heretofore filed by an Original Companion shall be valid and effectual as a nomination under this Section.

SEC. 5.—No eligibility to membership shall be derived from an Original Companion who has been expelled from the Order and not reinstated.

SEC. 6.—The resignation of a Companion, or the dropping of a Companion from the rolls for neglect or refusal to pay arrears, or the expulsion of a Companion who has obtained membership by descent, shall not affect the eligibility of his successor.

SEC. 7.—An applicant applying for membership by virtue of descent from a deceased Companion, or from a deceased eligible officer, shall file affidavits and furnish such other evidence as may be required, setting forth the facts upon which the eligibility is claimed.

SEC. 8.—SECOND CLASS: The sons, and if there be no sons, the grandsons, of living Companions of the First Class, whether Original, in Succession, or by Inheritance, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, shall be eligible to membership. Those elected under the provisions of this Section shall be designated Companions of the Second Class.

SEC. 9.—Upon the death of the Companion from whom his eligibility by direct descent was derived, a Companion of the Second Class shall become a Succession Companion of the First Class, and be so announced to the Order by Circular.

SEC. 10.—Companions of the Second Class shall have the right to vote in all cases except in elections of applicants for membership as Original Companions of the First Class.

SEC. 11.—THIRD CLASS: Companions of the Third Class are those gentlemen who, in civil life, during the Rebellion, were specially distinguished for conspicuous and consistent loyalty to the National Government, and were active and eminent in maintaining the supremacy of the same; and who, prior to the fifteenth day of April, 1890, were elected members of the Order pursuant to the then existing provisions of the Constitution, the power to elect such having ceased at that date.

ARTICLE VI.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—Every application for membership shall be made to the Commandery of the State in which the applicant resides, if a Commandery exists therein, and if there be none, then to such Commandery as the applicant may select. Provided, That applicants residing in the District of Columbia shall apply to the Commandery thereof.

SEC. 2.—Every application for membership of the First or Second Class shall be made in writing and signed by the applicant, who shall be recommended in writing by three Companions of the First Class of the Commandery to which he shall apply, at least one of whom shall further vouch by letter for the candidate's worthiness. The application shall be accompanied by an admission fee of not less than twenty-five dollars, which shall be refunded in case of non-election.

SEC. 3.—The name, address and military record of every applicant for membership, together with the names of the Companions recommending him, shall be published in a circular and be referred to a committee of investigation, consisting of three Companions of the First Class, other than the recommending Companions, which committee shall report in writing at the next stated meeting. Upon the reading of the report, the Commander shall formally request any Companion who has any objection thereto, or reasons against the election of the applicant, to state the same if he so desires. If the application be for membership as an Original Companion of the First Class, each Original Companion present, and no other, shall cast one ballot for or against the applicant ; but if the application be for membership by inheritance, or for membership in the Second Class, every Companion present shall cast one ballot for or against the applicant. If not more than four adverse ballots be cast against the applicant, he shall be declared elected.

SEC. 4.—An application for membership may be withdrawn before report thereon, or after favorable report and before ballot ; but if the report be unfavorable, the candidate must be balloted for.

SEC. 5.—Companions shall subscribe to the Constitution, and shall be installed at a stated meeting, or by such written declaration as may be prescribed by the By-Laws.

SEC. 6.—Each Companion shall be entitled to the insignia during membership. Original Companions of the First Class and Companions elected thereto by right of inheritance from deceased officers and Companions of the Third Class shall be entitled to the diploma. The right to hold the insignia and diploma of a Companion of the First Class shall, after his death, remain in his family, provided, he is not represented in the Order by a Companion in Succession or of the Second Class ; otherwise they shall be returned to the Commandery of which he was a member, and shall be reissued to such Companion in Succession or of the Second Class only on the surrender of the insignia in his possession as a Companion in Succession or of the Second Class. A Companion of the Second Class, upon becoming a Companion of the First Class, shall return to the Commandery in which he was elected the Insignia in his possession as such Companion of the Second Class. The right to hold the insignia and diploma of a Companion of the Third Class shall, after his death, remain in his family, and in the Commandery through which they were issued, if there be no such family.

SEC. 7.—If an applicant be rejected, such action shall be communicated to all Commanderies, and he shall be thereafter forever ineligible for election, except after one year in the Commandery by which he was rejected; and then only by unanimous ballot. If a candidate for membership by inheritance shall be rejected, the person standing next in regular order of inheritance shall be eligible.

SEC. 8.—Any Companion who shall disclose the name of another who has been instrumental in causing the rejection of an applicant for membership, or who shall give information that may lead to such disclosure, shall be liable to expulsion from the Order, and the Commander shall cause this section to be read immediately after such rejection.

SEC. 9.—If at any time subsequent to an election to membership, it shall be discovered that the same was procured through fraud, misstatement, or the suppression of material facts, the Commandery-in-Chief shall have power to declare such election null and void; Provided, That after due investigation said fraud, misstatement, or suppression shall, in the judgment of a majority of the members of the Commandery-in-Chief present at the meeting at which action is taken, be fully established.

Annulments of election under this section shall be communicated to the Commanderies by the Recorder-in-Chief as soon as practicable after action of the Commandery-in-Chief, and promulgated in the next regular Circular of said Commanderies.

ARTICLE VII.

COMPANIONS-AT-LARGE.

Any gentleman who was engaged in the suppression of the Rebellion prior to the fifteenth day of April, 1865, serving upon staff duty without commission, may be elected a Companion-at-Large upon the nomination of a State Commandery, and election by the Commandery-in-Chief. Such nomination shall only be made upon due application and investigation, and by unanimous favorable ballot of the Companions present at the meeting when the report of the committee of investigation is submitted. Upon notification of the nomination the Commandery-in-Chief, after further investigation, shall act upon the nomination. The vote shall be by ballot, and one adverse ballot shall reject.

A Companion-at-Large shall become an Original Companion of the First Class, upon affiliation with the State Commandery by which he was nominated, and shall receive the diploma and insignia of the Order.

ARTICLE VIII.

RESIGNATIONS AND TRANSFERS.

SECTION 1.—Resignations shall be offered in writing at a stated meeting of the Commandery, accompanied by a certificate from the Recorder that all dues have been paid, and the insignia and diploma shall be returned, the registered number of which shall never be re-issued except in case of his restoration to membership. Such resignation may be accepted by a two-thirds vote of the Companions present at any stated meeting, provided that it shall not be accepted pending charges.

SEC. 2.—A Companion who shall have resigned may upon application to the Commandery of which he had been a member be restored to membership by vote of a majority of the members of the Commandery present at any stated meeting: Provided, That notice of such intended action shall have been published by Circular. In case of such restoration his former number on the roll and the original number of his insignia shall be assigned and his original diploma returned to him.

SEC. 3.—A Companion changing his abode, or his station if in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps, may be transferred to the Commandery most accessible, upon written application to his Commandery, accompanied by a certificate that his dues have been paid.

ARTICLE IX.

FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—Membership shall be forfeited only for violation of the obligations assumed on entering the Order, or for conduct unbecoming a gentleman. In such cases the diploma and insignia shall be returned to the Commandery.

SEC. 2.—If the conduct or character of any Companion be impeached, the accusing Companion shall prefer charges in writing to the Board of Officers, who shall notify the accused; and if, after due investigation, the Board considers the charges to be sustained, it shall report its findings to the Commandery, notifying the accused of the time when the report is to be made. The accused may be expelled, suspended or reprimanded at a stated meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Commandery present.

SEC. 3.—The dismissal, cashiering or dishonorable discharge from the military or naval service of the United States, or the conviction in a court of justice of a criminal offence, of any Companion, shall constitute sufficient reason for his expulsion without further investigation.

Sec. 4.—A Companion who has been expelled may be reinstated by unanimous vote of the members of the Commandery present at a stated meeting, after he shall have petitioned in writing for reinstatement. Notice of such petition shall be published in the circular calling the stated meeting.

ARTICLE X.
